

HYPNOS

HYPNOS GROUP MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION

It is an unfortunate truth that forms of slavery, which degrade humanity and oppress millions still exist in the world. We cannot eradicate this vile practice ourselves but we recognise our responsibility to ensure, as far as we can, that this practice does not take place in our organisation or in our supply chain. This statement sets out the steps that we have taken to eliminate, as far as possible, the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking taking place.

DUE DILIGENCE PROCESSES FOR MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We have been working with a number of our customers as part of an initiative called “Future Factories” to trial an auditing methodology designed to identify, amongst other things, “slavery” practices. As a result of the initiative, we have worked with our supply chain partners to change practices in their businesses where there may be risk of modern slavery.

Through our commitment to sustainability, we are engaging with our suppliers on a regular basis to ensure they are making efforts to improve and uphold the highest environmental credentials for their products and services. We are also taking this opportunity to engage with them in reducing the risk of modern slavery in their business and their supply chain.

We have also implemented systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains – no new supplier will be appointed without them going through our risk assessment.
- Mitigate the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains, which we manage through our new supplier process and our contracts which will, going forward, give us the ability to monitor our supply chains and potential risk areas.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.

SUPPLIER ADHERENCE TO OUR VALUES AND ETHICS

We do not tolerate modern slavery and human trafficking. We have put in place a new supplier process which will both:

- (i) assess the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking in any new supplier and its own supply chains before we engage with that supplier and
- (ii) give us the ability to monitor and audit suppliers once they have been engaged. Our audit, legal and business operations teams are involved in ensuring this process works effectively and will monitor it regularly, adapting as necessary to the changing needs of our business.

TRAINING

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and in our supply chains, we will be asking our suppliers to provide training to their staff and suppliers.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our Group's modern slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending June 25th 2020.
